OLD BUSINESS:

- Shirts and other garments still may be ordered, see Keith or Bill Landis.
- Our visit to the Uldar Hazey center is tentatively scheduled for February 2016. Talk was conducted about Renting a bus and opening this trip to other area clubs. No action was taken.
- Oct. 17th at 10:00 AM will be our Spook Fly members attending are requested to bring a covered dish. Several simple events will be held.
- A reminder was made that if you are planning on going to the field to fly that you should post your Intentions on Facebook so that others can join in on the fun too.

NEW BUSINESS:

- A discussion was held on having a multi-club event with other clubs in the area next year. Getting 3 clubs
To participate in this event had favorable talk from club members. Keith say he would coordinate this Idea and these discussions were tabled till next flying season.
- Another discussion was held on the merger of both the YMA and our club. It is thought that our club has Better funding and the YMA has a better field with very low rent and a 5 year lease. There were no
Concrete ideas and this talk was ended without any actions.
- This was our first meeting at the South York diner, Food was served late with many errors in their orders
Keith stated that since this was our first meeting at this facility, they should be better prepared in the Future. They will have a better idea on what to expect when we show up next month and so on.
- Keith took on the task to send out a survey, to poll members if they would be interested in running an RC
Flee market. This will require a significant effort by our members to hold such an event. AA head count
On personnel willing to help will be needed prior to this undertaking.
- Keith announced that Dwight Hunters collection of RC Planes and equipment will be on sale this Saturday
Starting at 10:00 AM at Dwight's home. First come first served.
- The Blue and Gray is having their chilly fun fly this Saturday at their home field.
- New member Frank Kelkis has re-joined the club.
- The following nominations were made for the upcoming elections:
  - President: Keith Brackin
  - V. President: Dan Wagner
  - Secretary Jodi Fink
  - Safety officer Tim Hunter
  - Safety deputies Ryan Heindel and Bill Landis
